Congratulations to Our Asbury Culinary Team

On July 27, our Asbury Pointe Retirement Community Culinary Team participated in the annual Taste of the Network hosted by Network in Aging of WNY at the Amherst Senior Center. Asbury walked away with not one but two honors!

Asbury's Chef Donald Schmitter won best Ethnic Dish with his India-inspired shrimp pakora tacos with green chutney.

Pastry Chef Allison Giafaglione won for Best Dessert - an almond pound cake with brown sugared peaches, whipped cheesecake and spiced almonds.

Resident Life at Beechwood

Asbury Pointe Retirement Community residents enjoyed a day at Explore & More - because you are never too old to play!

Our residents at Presbyterian Village at North Church took a trip out to Lumberjacks for lunch on the water.

Here we have three generations spending the day together in Beechwood's atrium - talking, laughing and knitting.

Ken-Ton Presbyterian Village residents are so happy to be able to get back together again for their coffee hour.

Beechwood Farmers Market

Beechwood Farmers Market is up and running every Thursday from 3-7pm through August 18. The farmers market is open to Beechwood residents (and their families), staff and the community, taking place on the corner of Millersport Highway and North Forest.

With this being a new endeavor for Beechwood, the market is small but jam-packed with a variety of about a dozen vendors selling fresh fruit and produce; jams and preservatives, baked goods, artisan spices and oils, organic health and wellness products and much more.

For more information about Beechwood's farmers market, please call Kristin at 716-810-7370 or email kscholz@beechwoocare.org.
